

Conference on Environmental Liabilities, Risk Assessment, and Remediation

December 10 - 11, 2018

Ritz Charles Event Center
12156 North Meridian Street
Carmel, Indiana, USA

A conference dedicated to advancing the professional competence of attendees through education and dissemination of environmental information relevant to the world's leading businesses.

www.MSECA.org

Conference on Environmental Liabilities, Risk Assessment, and Remediation

Takeaways from the Conference:

- Technical sessions focused on identifying and quantifying environmental liabilities, evaluating environmental risks and effecting remediation and risk management
- New tools and techniques for site investigation, remediation, and risk evaluations
- Recent updates to regulatory guidance and statutes
- Emerging contaminants and how they potentially may be impacting businesses
- Collaboration with clients, regulators, colleagues, and vendors

Who Should Attend

- Remediation Managers
- Environmental Health & Safety Professionals
- Risk Assessors and Toxicologists
- Geologists & Engineers
- State and Federal Regulators
- Environmental Scientists
- Environmental Consultants
- Facility Environmental Compliance Managers
- Academic Students and Faculty
- Ecologists & Biologists
- Industry Environmental Leaders

Requesting Conference Abstracts for the Following Subject Matter

- Remediation Methods & Effectiveness
- Injection Treatments & Technologies
- Risk Assessments & Toxicology
- Geologic & Stratigraphic Applications
- Groundwater Monitoring & Modeling
- Metals in Soil & Groundwater
- Emerging Contaminants
- Vapor Intrusion
- High Resolution Site Characterization
- Green & Sustainable Remediation
- Petroleum & Heavy Hydrocarbons
- Environmental Due Diligence

Attendee Fees

- Members: $295 per person
- Non-Members: $395 per person

www.MSECA.org

For additional information regarding the conference or sponsorship opportunities, please contact: Aaron Friedrich (president@mseca.org) or Brian Lewis (blewis@mseca.org or 317-735-4005)